Hart; By Virtue of Chapter 171 of the Session Laws of the State of Washington, 1921 To the Citizens of the State of Washington: In the month of July, complying with chapter 171 of the Session Laws of 1921, I published a statement of the tax situation in this state. Supplementing that statement I am submitting herewith the complete report of the special committee I appointed to study the tax problems of the state. In making this report public I am complying with the wishes of a great number of the citizens of the state who are studying the problem with the idea in view of bringing to the attention of the next legislature some changes in our system that will help to change the present unequal load that real estate and personal property are now bearing. I commend to your special attention those paragraphs in this report relating to the present system of assessing property and the remedy suggested by the committee. Also the paragraph dealing with the subject of budget control and the paragraphs relating to the school finance of the state. I had given these questions considerable study prior to the submission of the committee s report and the recommendations submitted are in accord with my general views on the subject. I am in favor of a strict state control over the assessment of property. The detail of working it out is not entirely clear in my mind as yet. The budget system I have always advocated, especially a budget for the state placing the responsibility entirely...
