University of Georgia Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 251 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In Atlanta and Environs, historian Franklin M. Garrett wrote that Oakland Cemetery is Atlanta's most tangible link between the past and the present. Aside from its importance as a historic site, Oakland is among the nation's finest examples of a rural garden cemetery, characteristic of the nineteenth-century movement to transform stark burial grounds into pastoral landscapes for both the repose of the dead and the enjoyment of the living. With Ren and Helen Davis's engaging narrative, rich photography, archival images, and detailed maps, Atlanta's Oakland Cemetery is a versatile guide for touring the cemetery s...
