Excerpt from Juliana Horatia Ewing, and Her Books All hearts grew warmer in the presence Of one who, seeking not his own, Gave freely for the love of giving, Nor reaped for self the harvest sown. Thy greeting smile was pledge and prelude Of generous deeds and kindly words: In thy large heart were fair guest-chambers, Open to sunrise and the birds! The task was thine to mould and fashion Life s plastic newness into grace; To make the boyish heart heroic, And light with thought the maiden s face. O friend! if thought and sense avail not To know thee henceforth as thou art, That all is well with thee forever, I trust the instincts of my heart. Thine be the quiet habitations, Thine the green pastures, blossom-sown, And smiles of saintly recognition, As sweet and tender as thy own. Thou com st not from the hush and shadow To meet us, but to thee we come; With thee we never can be strangers, And where thou art must still be home. A Memorial - John...
