As the eldest of three girls Emily had been aware from an early age that she was To The Manor Born. She has been a good girl her entire life her grandmother has been her greatest influence, teaching her not only independence and right from wrong but above all how to be generous compassionate and to follow her heart no matter the consequences. When her Grandmother dies she is left with the responsibility of her estate and businesses. She travels half way across the country to take up her new position as the Lady of the manor. As well as the usual upheaval she finds herself embroiled in the politics of the local town, which with her grandmothers steel she handles well or so she thinks. As if life is not complicated enough she finds herself drawn to her handmade, this alone is enough for her life to be ruined let alone the fact that her new intimate friend is black....
