The Chairman, in appropriate terms, thanked the Society for the honor they had done him in electing him President. Professor J. Milne, on the President's request, then delivered a lecture on Earthquakes in Japan. After an interesting discussion and the usual votes of thanks, the meeting adjourned. A General Meeting of the Asiatic Society of Japan was held at the Library, No. 33, Tsukiji, Tokyo, on Wednesday, November 19th, 1884, the President in the chair. The minutes of the two last meetings, having been published as usual in the Japan Mail, were taken as read. The Corresponding Secretary announced that the Rev. J. L. Amerman had been elected Vice-President; that Messrs. T. W. Kenny and J. C. Hall had been elected Members of Council; and that M. Leon Metchnikoff, Switzerland, had been elected a non-resident member of the Society,...
