Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the Tennessee Valley Authority's (TVA) labor-management relations, focusing on: (1) the basis for TVA exemption from federal labor relations laws that apply to most other federal agencies; and (2) alternatives for improving TVA labor-management relations. GAO found that: (1) TVA employees collectively bargained with TVA management through TVA policy rather than by law; (2) under TVA policy, its employees and their unions have such advantages over other federal agencies covered by labor relations law as the ability to bargain for wages; (3) although the TVA bargaining structure includes some provisions common to federal labor relations laws, TVA employees and their unions lack basic rights and protections that are guaranteed under law to employees in most other private and federal organizations, including the statutory right to collectively bargain and use certain avenues for resolving disputes; (4) TVA labor relations deteriorated in the past decade due to unions' beliefs that the collective bargaining process was inadequate; (5) unfavorable economic conditions caused TVA management to reduce and realign its work force and take...

Reviews

This is basically the very best book we have gone through until now. I have read and I also am confident that I am going to gonna study once again again in the future. I am just very happy to inform you that this is basically the very best ebook we have read inside my own life and might be the very best publication for at any time.

-- Angus Hickle

This pdf might be really worth a go through, and far better than other. It can be packed with wisdom and knowledge. Its been written in an exceedingly straightforward way and is particularly only soon after I finished reading through this pdf by which basically changed me, modify the way in my opinion.
