

What We Have Here And Why

By Norman A. Richards

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The voice of a proud, conservative Republican, who is a veteran and a patriot. Norm Richards gives his personal opinion of socialism, liberalism, many Democrats and what lies ahead for the United States of North America. This book sets out to explain how dastardly, incomprehensible decisions have been made to grow the size of our government to make our citizens beholden to them forever and to look to them to always take care of us. You are too dumb to take care of yourself and your own family. The bleeding heart liberals demand that government provide for you from the womb to the tomb. The incremental destruction of this country began with the creation of the social security system. The start of the socialism cancer which has never worked anywhere in any country which embraces it and believers in this policy are flat out wrong to say that it has just not been done properly. It has been proven wrong and many countries are paying the price the longer that they continue this absurdity. We are a nation...
