Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Battle of Elizabethtown Ladies and Gentlemen: - In the large gathering here to-day, in the great speech of your Governor to which you have just listened, and in the ceremony which you are yet to witness, a stranger must read the signs of an auspicious day in North Carolina, a day when the actions and motives of a virtuous people are not only vindicated, but honored in the unveiling of a beautiful structure of granite with its sides emblazoned with tablets of living letters which fitly tell a story of glory more imperishable than the bronze and adamant upon which tis written. This day is more auspicious than the similar ones that have gone before, because it is the culmination of the things we have done before. To-day, for the first time, we extend the circle of our endeavors and bring within its scope some men whose deeds have not only been too much unhonored and unsung, but who have actually been regarded by some of our so-called historians as extremely suspicious characters. On any day some fifteen years ago, if a traveler had been venturesome enough to attempt to pass the tangle of the Old Salisbury road he might have seen somewhere on this field a stoutly-made man, robust in body and with a strong face denoting remarkable mental activity, busily engaged with a score of laborers in clearing underbrush, measuring distances, marking lines or laying out avenues. That man you all know. It was Judge David Schenck, to-day the honored president of your company, and he has nobly served you, not only in the work done on this field, but in the...
