I can always depend on Charlie to be present at meetings, provided I can notify him of the time we meet. Among the visitors at the convention was Bro. Victor Hugo Crusselle, Xi., Emory College, Oxford, Ga. Cruss, as he is familiarly known, was present at all the meetings and manifested no small degree of interest in all the proceedings. Before the convention adjourned he had met all the boys present and made a favorable impression upon all. Cruss is now on the road for the Coca Cola Co., of Atlanta, Ga., and makes Kansas City about twice a year in his rounds. It is unnecessary for me to say that he is always heartily welcomed here. Thanks for the arrangements made...
